Spam sensitivity

To set spam sensitivity for incoming mail for the entire domain, go to the Spam filter tab. Here you can add sender addresses that should always be considered non-spam (white list) or spam (black list).

> If you whitelist or blacklist a sender for the domain, users who have declared the same sender for their own mailboxes will be imposed the domain settings for that sender: domain settings always override mailbox settings.

Revision #4
Created 26 January 2024 13:41:41 by Pierre Lannoy
Updated 26 January 2024 18:02:55 by Pierre Lannoy